

Science Fair Rocks !!

Oviedo High School students who participated in the regional Science Fair on Saturday, February 4, did extremely well. Every student either Placed or received an Honorable Mention. Congratulations Ms. Krehling and students!

In the category of Behavioral Science:

Neel Patel placed 1st and will represent OHS at State Science and Engineering Fair (SSEF) and International Science and Engineering Fair (ISEF).

Neel also received special awards from the Navy/Marine Corps and the US Army Research Office

Steven Schilke received honorable mention

In the category of Computer Science:

Daniel Hammack placed 1st and will represent OHS at State Science Fair (SSEF), the Orlando Science Challenge (OSC) and International Science Fair (ISEF).

Daniel also received special awards from the Navy/Marine Corps, the US Army Research Office, and Siemens.

In the category of Animal Science:

Heidi Hammel and Carson Smith received second place and will represent OHS at State Science Fair (SSEF) They also received a special award from the Orlando Reef Divers.

Lloyd Verdeflor received honorable mention

In the category of Engineering I:

Pranshu Bhwardwaj placed third.

In the category of Environmental Sciences I:

Cayden Lawn and Harry Traber received honorable mention. They also received special awards from Orlando Reef Divers and the US Army Research Office. They will represent OHS in the Stockholm Junior Water Prize.

In the category of Environmental Sciences II:

Shawnee Doling-Tye placed first and received an award from the Florida Agriculture in the Classroom.

In the category of Mathematics:

Madison Greco placed 1st and will represent OHS at State Science Fair (SSEF) and the Orlando Science Challenge (OSC)

She received awards from ASHRAE, the Navy/Marine Corps, the US Army Research Office, Women in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science at UCF and Siemens.